A Rule of Life for Young Pastors

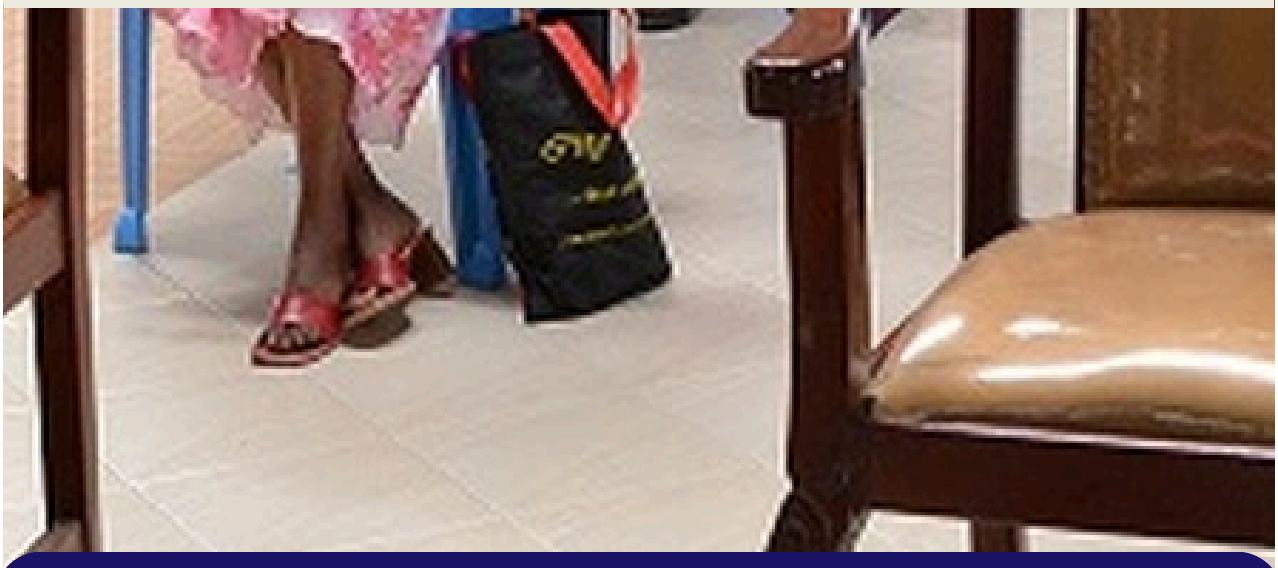

Mentors, Reflection and Blessing

WELCOME

A word before you begin

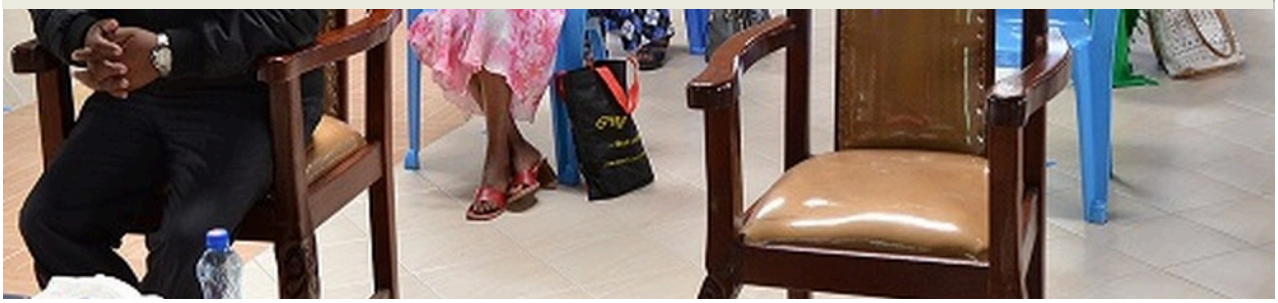

Young pastor, follow Christ before you seek a platform. Ministry can be costly, and Scripture calls leaders to courage, integrity, service, and endurance. But sacrifice does not mean exploitation; loyalty does not mean silence; and endurance does not require remaining in danger. These ten truths are invitations to prepare your heart with Scripture, wise counsel, healthy boundaries, and a life rooted in Christ. Read every passage in context and let trusted, accountable believers help you grow.

CHRISCO

TRUTHS 1–4

01 COST

Calling can require time, comfort, and resources. Offer freely; do not accept exploitation.

02 PRIVATE BATTLES

Encourage others, but seek trusted support for your own burdens (2 Corinthians 1:3–7).

03 LOYALTY

Trust wisely. Disagreement and safe departure are not automatically betrayal.

04 MISJUDGED

Listen, keep integrity, and welcome fair accountability (1 Timothy 3:1–7).

CHRISCO

FAMILY, TEAM & UNITY

05 FAMILY

Treat your spouse and children as people, not ministry props; protect their privacy and time.

06 MENTORS

Equip emerging leaders; challenge is not automatically rebellion (2 Timothy 2:1–2).

07 CALLING

Test your assignment with Scripture, wise counsel, character, and fruit.

08 UNITY

Pursue peace and truth; never use unity to silence someone harmed.

CHRISCO

SERVE WITH COURAGE
Christ is the reward

09 GRATITUDE

Serve God, not applause. Yet churches should honour work, provide fair support, and share the load.

10 ENDURANCE

Christ is your hope, not recognition. Endure faithfully; seek help and safety when needed.

THE CROWN

Matthew 24:13 calls disciples to faithfulness amid trial; it does not promise ministry success or require staying in abuse.
